

27/05/2026

CONFIDENCE IN GOD

Psalms 16:8 (KJV) I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

The confidence of the Psalmist was in God.

He had seen God come through for him time and time again. He had witnessed the faithfulness of God in every season in battles, in trials, in moments of weakness, and in times of victory.

That is why he boldly declared:

“Because He is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.”

Child of God, fear comes when you forget who God is and what He has already done for you.

But the moment you remember His marvelous works, faith rises again and strength returns again.

Never forget the goodness of God in your life.

The same God who brought you through before will bring you through again.

I have seen God recently. He allayed every fear and assured me that He knows exactly what He is doing with my life.

The Lord is a good God. He never loses control, even when life feels uncertain.

Whatever you are going through today, put God at the center of it.

You will come out rejoicing!

You are strong not because of your own strength but because the Lord is at your right hand.

And when God stands with you:

No storm can bury you.

No battle can break you.

No situation can move you!

Sometimes when you feel like you are losing, pause and remember where God brought you from. Think of how He carried you from your young age. Think of how faithful He has been through every season of your life. As you remember His faithfulness, you will notice something powerful:

The struggle will begin to look smaller, and your faith will begin to grow bigger.

Your history with God is your weapon against present fear.

And if you feel you do not yet have a testimony of your own, borrow one from the Scriptures. Borrow one from your pastor. Borrow one from someone God has helped before and declare:

“If God did it for them, He will surely do it for me, because He is the same yesterday, today, and forever!”

Do not let fear preach louder than God’s promises.

Stand firm. Believe again. Trust again. Pray again.

The Lord is at your right hand you shall not be moved!

Hallelujah!

Apostle C & Pastor S

+27625991338